

HOPKINSVILLE, APR. 19, 1881

SOCIALITIES.

Mrs. W. G. Wheeler is visiting friends in Clarksville.

Miss Belle Henry, of Casey, was in the city Saturday.

Charles Metcalfe paid a visit to Nashville last week.

Miss Belle Hopper is visiting Mrs. Moriwether, of Clarksville.

Miss Lucy Hironymous' left for her home in Louisville last week.

Miss Ida Morrison, of Pembroke, was the guest of Miss Minnie Lander last week.

Mr. Jas. E. Gault, of Crofton, a prominent merchant, was in the city Sunday.

Mr. M. C. Hay, a prominent citizen of Greenville, was in the city last Wednesday.

Mr. B. H. Grover, the gentlemanly advance agent of the Humpty Dumpty company, called on us last week.

Miss Annie Lober, of Henderson, has returned home, after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Duickell.

Mrs. Harris, of Louisville, arrived to-day on a visit to her daughter, Miss Anna Harris, at Dr. Fairleigh's.

Mrs. Della Welford has returned from a long visit to her daughter, Mrs. Louis Welford, at Hopkinsville.

Tobacco Leaf.

Mr. H. S. Green returned last week from Evansville, where he had been attending school at the Commercial College.

Miss Lela Sale, a winsome and attractive belle of Hocking Springs, is visiting the family of Mr. H. C. Hinchman.

Ex-Sheriff, P. F. Rogers, has accepted a position in the dry goods store of Iko Hart, where he will be glad to see and serve his friends.

Mr. J. W. McGee, of Bellevue, returned from the East last week, having purchased large stocks of goods for his mercantile establishments at Bellevue and Montgomery.

Mr. Andrew Gregory, of the firm of Gregory & Bro. returned Friday from a trip East, whither he had gone to purchase his stock of groceries.

Mrs. H. G. Leichter returned to her home in Mountville, Iowa, last week accompanied by her brother, Mr. W. S. Davidson. Mrs. Davidson and her sister, Miss Mamie Jessup, also accompanied them as far as Louisville and will visit friends in Covington and Eminence.

Messrs. L. M. and B. F. Bulb have removed to Buffalo Gap, Taylor Co., Texas, to practice their profession, the law. They were for two years members of the Hopkinsville bar and are young men of energy, ability and the moral character. They are close students and enjoyed a lucrative practice here, where the bar is crowded, although they came as entire strangers. They will rise in the legal profession in their new home; they are made of just the kind of material to meet and cope successfully with the ups and downs of life. We wish them success, feeling assured that they will ultimately attain it.

AMUSEMENTS.

HUMPTY DUMPTY.

Jay Rial's Humpty Dumpty novelty exhibition will be at Mozart hall to-night. The whole performance will be in pantomime not a word being spoken. The Dubuque Herald has this to say of the company:

One of the best—guess we better say the best—performances that has ever struck this town, struck it last night, right outside, too. It is Jay Rial's Humpty Dumpty Novelty Exhibition. There is fun in earnest, real fun—fun that runs all through the gamut from the lowest to the highest note. We venture our reputation for veracity when we say that there has been no show of any description here for years that furnished so much solid enjoyment to the inch as this company did last night. From the rise of the curtain to the final drop, there was an incessant fusillade of merriment that kept the house in a joyous mood all the time.

Tickets for sale at Evans' drug store at the unusually low price of 35 cents. Reserved seats 50 cents. Let everybody who loves fun attend.

COLLEGE ENTERTAINMENT.

The Lotus Literary Society of Bethel Female College will give an entertainment in the College chapel next Friday night, the proceeds to go towards purchasing a library for the society. The last was a decided success and the young ladies promise a still better entertainment next time. Music, dialogues, recitations and the reading of the paper will be some of the features of the entertainment. Don't fail to attend and let the young ladies have a crowded house. A large number of persons would like to hear the recitations of Misses Woodbridge and Walter at the last concert repeated. On the first page we publish the beautiful poem so skillfully recited by Miss Annie Welford. The young ladies have placed the price of admission at only 25 cents although the entertainment will be really worth four times the amount.

Card From Wm. Boyd.

In the South Kentuckian of March 23 and since my name has been used by one Mr. L. T. Filipo, writing under the nom de plume of Raymond. The readers doubtless remember the charges, all of which I disavow as false, and shall prove him a rascal and a liar in the proper time and place, without his assistance.

Wm. Boyd.

HERE AND THERE.

Humpty Dumpty to-night.

Go to the College Friday night.

Don't fail to read the conspicuous advertisement of M. Frankel & Sons.

The Wizard Oil company have gone, after moving down a big business.

J. H. Clarkson is in town with a beautiful line of Spring Samples for Suits.

Gentlemen who need Spring Suits should not fail to give Mr. Clarkson their orders.

The firm of Cowan Higgins & Hart has been dissolved, Mr. George Hart retiring.

Much local and editorial matter is crowded out this week by the rush of spring advertisements.

Nobby Spring Suits and Peacock white shirts are just the thing at present, and the boys are keeping Clarkson busy.

There will be a picnic at Pilot Rock the first Saturday in May, and Mr. M. D. Brown, of Elkton, will deliver an address.

Suits and Shirts are made up to Special Order this spring for less money than for years past. See Clarkson's prices.

"Honest John Mason" advertises with us this week. He proposes to dispose of his complete stock of dry goods at prices that defy competition. Call and see Honest John.

Mr. Clarkson says he has a line of Samples from New York that surpasses anything in the way of Suits ever brought to the city.

Gentlemen who appreciate good fitting suits and true fit shirts should not fail to give J. H. Clarkson their measures, as perfect fits are guaranteed.

Our young friends, Fred Spurgeon and Joel McPherson are making a marked success of their Barlow's rotary type work on Photographs. Mr. Spurgeon was instructed in the art by Shoulin, of St. Louis, whose gallery is the largest in the United States.

Hon. Jas. F. Clay, of Henderson, has consented to deliver the Annual Address before the young ladies of Bethel Female College at the Commencement exercises in June. He is a speaker of great fluency and oratorical power, and Prof. Rust has done well in selecting him to deliver the annual address.

Business of all kinds seems to be opening up better and the merchants who have been wearing long faces for many weeks are beginning to look cheerful and happy. The spring trade will soon come on with a rush and those who advertise will have no trouble to sell their goods. You can see from our columns who are the live merchants and they are the ones to patronize.

Mr. Washington Duguid, from near Bellevue, Christian county, Ky., was married yesterday morning at the Franklin House, by the Rev. A. D. Sears, to Miss Ella Houshaw, also of same place. They were accompanied by Mr. Mack Davenport and Miss Lucy Davenport, as attendants. After the ceremony they left immediately for their home—Clarksville Chronicle.

See the advertisement of Mr. Sheetz, of Nashville, in this week's issue. Mr. Sheetz, besides being an accomplished musician, has been connected with a music house for ten years, and hence professes to be as good a judge of a musical instrument as can be found. To this add his merited reputation for reliability and integrity and you have some substantial inducements to deal with him.

Mr. J. T. Story, of Roaring Springs, dropped in the other day to renew his subscription. He has been a constant reader of the South Kentuckian since it started. He was anxious to find out if we offered any baby carriages as premiums this year, as he became the happy father of twins a few days since. He named the new comers—a girl and a boy—Annie Otis and Jesse Otis, the latter he says in honor of the Lotus Society of Bethel Female College. He says he saw a notice of the society in this paper and fancied the name. This is not published to flatter the young ladies of the society but it is a true story.

Another Homicide.

On Sunday night 13th inst., a negro man named Klab Baker, living with F. S. Mechem, three miles north east of town, received a gunshot wound from some unknown party which resulted in his death the following day. He was away from home and came back about 9 o'clock and reported that he was walking along in the road when three men on horseback rushed up behind him from the direction of the city and yelled to him to "clear the track."

He obeyed and jumped aside into the fence corner and as they passed one of them turned in his saddle and shot him through the body. Another report is that he was robbing a hen roost when he was shot, but it is not substantiated and no one knows which story is true as there were no witnesses to the shooting. At any rate he is dead and the probability is that the manner of his shooting will remain a mystery.

DIED.

DIED.

YOUNG AT Madisonville, Ky.

April 10, of consumption, Mrs. Anne M. Young, wife of Zeno F. Young, in the 23rd year of her age.

She leaves two little children, aged seven and five years to fight the battles of life without a mother's love and counsel. We deeply sympathize with our fraternal brother in his sore affliction. For months his beloved wife has been dying inch by inch. How must his strong heart have bled to see him gradually closing his clutches around the partner of his bosom and shutting out the light of life, while he was compelled from week to week to meet the world with a smiling face! May God comfort and sustain him in his great trial, and may he find consolation in the reflection that the woman he loved is now in Heaven.

WHITLOCK—At the residence of a relative in Trenton, Sunday, April 17, Miss Sallie Whitlock, of this city, from injuries received by being caught in the machinery of a mill, March 21st. She was at one time considered out of danger, but grew worse last week and continued to sink till she died, Sunday night. She was an estimable young lady, just budding into womanhood, and leaves many friends to lament her unhappy fate.

DUNN—At the residence of his parents in this city, April 16th, Cranston A. Ingham, son of Jas. E. Burba, aged sixteen months.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

T. J. Blain and J. B. Solomon were dubbed as Knights in the K. of P. Lodge Thursday night. The Grand Orient was conferred upon Knights, J. C. Gant, J. S. Forrey, J. B. Solomon, Louis Solomon, J. H. Myers, Ben Thompson, J. W. Cross and T. J. Blain.

A Lodge of the new order of Chocon Friends will be organized here soon. 108 names have been secured. The object of the order is insurance and it admits either males or females. The policies are for one, two or three thousand dollars and the assessments cost from 35 cents to $1.00 per thousand according to the age of the member. It is conducted pretty much like other co-operative companies, and pays the policy at death, total disability, or when the holder reaches 75 years of age. Dr. Lackey of Indiana is working it up.

The writer, in company with a dozen members of Evergreen Lodge Knights of Pythias, went over to Clarksville Saturday last to take the Wise Men's degree from the members of Cumberland Lodge. The kind, courteous and hospitable manner in which the delegation was received made the occasion one of rare pleasure and enjoyment to the Hopkinsville members. They will ever remember with pleasure the kind treatment and generous welcome of the Clarksville Knights.

ACCIDENTS.

U. H. Moore, a workman in Orr & Co's Planing Mill had his head severely cut by a buzz saw last Friday. It was at first reported that amputation would be necessary, but the hand was not cut as badly as it was supposed and is getting well.

A negro man employed at the quarry near the railroad bridge was horribly crushed by a falling stone, which was being raised by a derrick, last Thursday. His skull was fractured and one arm and one leg broken and other injuries inflicted. He was badly hurt, but will recover, from present indications.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.

If you have a photograph which you would like transformed into a living breathing, beautiful likeness, now is your opportunity. The delicate and lifelike that proceed from Barlow's new rotary type Dry Colors, are unequalled for both beauty and durability, by having this work done you preserve the picture from all risk of damage by fading or being marred in any way. It is sealed under convex glass, the colors are all right, which is the secret of their durability. These colors are entirely new here and different from the old styles water-color and far superior. We guarantee them never to fade. Samples may be seen at Metcalfe's, Woodbridge & Buckner's and J. C. Evans' stores. Below are names of persons having had work done by us: Mr. Hunter Wood, Mrs. Geo. O. Thompson, J. D. Ware, Mrs. Thos. Hlenock, Mr. Geo. H. Lacy, Mrs. J. Edgar McPherson, Ben Thompson, Mrs. H. B. Garner. Orders promptly attended to.

To the people of Christian and adjoining counties. I say to you that in buying goods of me, you do not have to pay for bad debts, but you buy goods at Cash prices, which are lower than you ever bought them before. All I ask is a trial. I mean what I say.

MILTON GANT.

Garrettsburg, April 4th, 1881.

I have used the Hord & Myers Tobacco Grower for two years on the thin points of my tobacco shiffs and have increased the yield there from fifty to one hundred per cent. and the tobacco grown with it brought 3 cents per lb. more than where I did not use it. I shall use it this season on all land that produces less than one thousand pounds per acre. My tobacco lots have been cleared for over forty years and on clover fallow.

Very respectfully, W. E. EMERY.

We guarantee our cigars to be as cheap as the best brands of cigar can be sold.
